consistent with the University's obligations in investigating complaints. Once an individual discloses identifying information to the University through the processes described above and in the applicable complaint procedures, he/she will be considered to have filed a complaint with the University. While the confidentiality of information received, the privacy of individuals involved, and compliance with the wishes of the complainant or witnesses cannot be guaranteed, they will be respected to the extent possible and appropriate.

If a student wishes to speak with someone who can assure confidentiality, he/she is encouraged to access counseling services available through the RUSVM Counseling Center or through RUSVM's third party provider, ASPIRE, at 888.470.1531 or via <http://myaspireonline.com>.

1.10.1.7 Resources for Victims of Sexual Misconduct

Local Resources are reviewed each year and can be found in the Annual Disclosure reports distributed to each campus community and posted on the Safety and Security page of the RUSVM web site. The reports contain lists of local resources available to victims of sexual misconduct. The resource lists are updated annually.

To access this information, go to: <http://www.rossu.edu/veterinary-school/Safety-Security.cfm>.

1.10.2 RUSVM Adherence to Title IX Federal Legislation

In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, RUSVM does not discriminate on the basis of sex in programs and activities. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator regarding the implementation of this law and its related regulations, including the investigation of any alleged non-compliance with or activity prohibited by Title IX, such as sexual harassment.
